

CAREER PRACTICUM REQUIREMENTS

To earn course credit, the student must submit the following:

- A weekly log (submitted electronically to the faculty supervisor) that details how many hours the student worked and what the student did during that time. The student is expected to accomplish 10 to 20 hours of journalism-oriented work each week—including research, reporting, writing, photography, layout, editing, and/or fact-checking, and the logbook should reflect that.
- One-to-two-page final essay (double-spaced, average margins, 12-point type) how the internship connects with coursework at UTA and why the experience was a valuable part of the student's preparation for a journalism career (including lessons learned).
- Positive internship performance evaluation by professional supervisor.
