Attendance Policy:

At The University of Texas at Arlington, taking attendance is not required. Rather, each faculty member is free to develop his or her own methods of evaluating students' academic performance, which includes establishing course-specific policies on attendance. As the instructor of this section, I have established following attendance policy:

Students must attend all lessons, all required studio class sessions, and all required recitals/concerts. Unexcused lessons will not be made up and the final grade will be affected. Midterms and Juries will not be made up. See below for additional information.

Requirements:

- Evidence of consistent progress by the student is expected. It is required that the student come to each lesson having completed the minimum level of preparation required.

Secondary Instrument Students: 1 hour of practice per day

- In general, this is the minimum time commitment required to achieve the results expected on an applied instrument. This practice must occur on a daily basis. It is not possible to skip practice days and then make up practice at a later time. Improvement on a musical instrument is cumulative – practice must occur daily.
 - Scales: to be practiced every day. They are the foundation of our technique and our repertoire and are an integral part of a daily practice routine.
 - Etudes and Technical Exercises: will be assigned on a weekly basis. They are very goal specific and should be practiced in this manner. If a student does not have a clear understanding of the manner in which a particular etude or exercise should be practiced, then they should immediately consult with a fellow student or make an appointment to review the question with instructor.
- The student must be warmed up for the lesson. If the student has evidently not warmed up for 30 minutes prior to the lesson, the Lesson Performance grade may be affected.
- Students are required to come to lessons with the instrument and bow in good working order and all materials organized for productive study.
- Students are responsible for providing an accompanist when deemed necessary by the instructor. Failure to do so may impact the student's Lesson Performance grade.

Lesson Recordings:

Lessons will be recorded every week. The goal of recording lessons is to develop an objective ear and perspective to carry into the practice room.

Students will either:

- Purchase an SD card (4-32GB) and bring it to every lesson
- Provide one's own recording apparatus

Students are required to listen to/ watch their recording within 48 hours of the lesson. After writing down notes from the lesson, the student can approach the ensuing practice sessions with newly reinforced ideas and objective observations from the lesson.

Students will be required to listen to/watch the recording each week and maintain a notebook, logging notes from each recorded lesson. Students should be observing:

- the main points in the lesson
- their own playing
- the teacher's response
- changes brought about by the teacher's response
- reminders on how to practice particular passages or techniques
- posture and visible technical issues
- physical tension

The student must bring the notes to the lesson and must produce the notebook upon request. The notebook may be evaluated as part of the Lesson Performance grade.

Required Textbooks and Other Course Materials:

- Electronic metronome and tuner
- Essential Elements 2000 for Strings, Teachers Manual Book 1 by Allen, Gillespie, Hayes available at Affordable Beginner Strings, 2425 W Arkansas Ln Suite B, Pantego TX 76013
- Individual course assignments (solos and etude books) will be addressed at first private lesson. It is the responsibility of the student to order assigned music at that time. Additional work requiring music purchases may be assigned as the semester progresses. It is the responsibility of the student to order assigned music promptly for each new assignment.
- CD/ video recordings as assigned. Purchase of one or more CD's and / or DVD's may be required each semester.
- SD card (4-32GB) or personal recording equipment (see Requirements)

Descriptions of Major Assignments and Examinations with Due Dates:

Midterm Exam (Scale and Technique Exam)

March 7-10, 2016, FA 2122, to occur during the student's regular private lesson time that week. Requirements to be determined no later than February 26, 2016.

Final Performance Project:

Due 5/6/16 to be presented during the student's private lesson time that week. Requirements to be determined no later than 4/22/16

Attendance Policy:

Students must attend all lessons. Mid Term Exams and Final Performance Project will not be made up.

If a student is more than 10 minutes late to a lesson, the lesson will be canceled and considered unexcused. The lesson will not be made up.

Grading Policy:

Midterm: 10%
Final Performance Project: 20%
Lesson Performance: 70%

Final grade is based on performance in these main areas:

Lesson Performance:

The student should come to each lesson prepared to perform all assigned materials including scales, exercises, etudes, solo materials, and excerpts. Evidence of consistent progress is required. Responsiveness and focus are required in each lesson. The student is expected to follow directions quickly and to be receptive to instruction. The student must follow all procedures outlined in Lesson Recordings section. Failure to meet any of these expectations will result in a lower grade. Student success will be charted weekly on the Applied Lesson form emailed to each student by Professor Forbes. The student must print out a copy of this form and bring it to the following lesson. It is expected that the student will use this Applied Lesson form, in addition to their CD notes, to prepare for the following lesson.

Please no gum, no drinks, and no food in studio during the lesson. Cellular phones must be turned off. Professional/business casual attire please.

Midterm Exam:

Specific repertoire and technical materials will be assigned by the instructor at the beginning of and possibly throughout the semester. The student is required to perform the assigned materials at a level considered competent by the instructor.

Final Performance Project:

Student will be required to present a Final Performance Project at the end of the semester. The student will be evaluated according to the criteria listed in the Student Learning Outcomes.

Expectations for Out-of-Class Study: see Requirements for the additional hours per week of the student's own time in course-related activities, including practicing, reading required materials, completing assignments, attending recitals, preparing for juries, etc.

Attendance Policy: Students must attend all lessons, all studio class sessions, and all required recitals/concerts. Midterms and Juries will not be made up.

Drop Policy:

Students may drop or swap (adding and dropping a class concurrently) classes through self-service in MyMav from the beginning of the registration period through the late registration period. After the late registration period, students must see their academic advisor to drop a class or withdraw. Undeclared students must see an advisor in the University Advising Center. Drops can continue through a point two-thirds of the way through the term or session. It is the student's responsibility to officially withdraw if they do not plan to attend after registering. Students will not be automatically dropped for non-attendance. Repayment of certain types of financial aid administered through the University may be required as the result of dropping classes or withdrawing. For more information, contact the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships (<http://web.uta.edu/ses/fao>).

Disability Accommodations:

UT Arlington is on record as being committed to both the spirit and letter of all federal equal opportunity legislation, including The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), The Americans with Disabilities Amendments Act (ADAAA), and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. All instructors at UT Arlington are required by law to provide “reasonable accommodations” to students with disabilities, so as not to discriminate on the basis of disability. Students are responsible for providing the instructor with official notification in the form of a letter certified by the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD). Students experiencing a range of conditions (Physical, Learning, Chronic Health, Mental Health, and Sensory) that may cause diminished academic performance or other barriers to learning may seek services and/or accommodations by contacting:

The Office for Students with Disabilities, (OSD) www.uta.edu/disability or calling 817-272-3364.

Counseling and Psychological Services, (CAPS) www.uta.edu/caps/ or calling 817-272-3671. Only those students who have officially documented a need for an accommodation will have their request honored. Information regarding diagnostic criteria and policies for obtaining disability-based academic accommodations can be found at www.uta.edu/disability or by calling the Office for Students with Disabilities at (817) 272-3364.

Title IX:

The University of Texas at Arlington does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, age, gender, sexual orientation, disabilities, genetic information, and/or veteran status in its educational programs or activities it operates. For more information, visit www.uta.edu/eos. For information regarding Title IX, visit www.uta.edu/titleIX.

Academic Integrity:

Students enrolled in this course are expected to adhere to the UT Arlington Honor Code:

I pledge, on my honor, to uphold UT Arlington’s tradition of academic integrity, a tradition that values hard work and honest effort in the pursuit of academic excellence.

I promise that I will submit only work that I personally create or contribute to group collaborations, and I will appropriately reference any work from other sources. I will follow the highest standards of integrity and uphold the spirit of the Honor Code.

Instructors may employ the Honor Code as they see fit in their courses, including (but not limited to) having students acknowledge the honor code as part of an examination or requiring students to incorporate the honor code into any work submitted. Per UT System Regents’ Rule 50101, §2.2, suspected violations of university’s standards for academic integrity (including the Honor Code) will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct. Violators will be disciplined in accordance with University policy, which may result in the student’s suspension or expulsion from the University.

Student Support Services:

UT Arlington provides a variety of resources and programs designed to help students develop academic skills, deal with personal situations, and better understand concepts and information related to their courses. Resources include tutoring, major-based learning centers, developmental education, advising and mentoring, personal counseling, and federally funded programs. For individualized referrals, students may visit the reception desk at University College (Ransom Hall), call the Maverick Resource Hotline at 817-272-6107, send a message to resources@uta.edu, or view the information at <http://www.uta.edu/universitycollege/resources/index.php>

Electronic Communication:

Students are responsible for checking their MavMail daily.

UT Arlington has adopted MavMail as its official means to communicate with students about important deadlines and events, as well as to transact university-related business regarding financial aid, tuition, grades, graduation, etc. All students are assigned a MavMail account and are responsible for checking the inbox regularly. There is no additional charge to students for using this account, which remains active even after graduation. Information about activating and using MavMail is available at <http://www.uta.edu/oit/cs/email/mavmail.php>.

Student Feedback Survey:

At the end of each term, students enrolled in classes categorized as lecture, seminar, or laboratory shall be directed to complete a Student Feedback Survey (SFS). Instructions on how to access the SFS for this course will be sent directly to each student through MavMail approximately 10 days before the end of the term. Each student's feedback enters the SFS database anonymously and is aggregated with that of other students enrolled in the course. UT Arlington's effort to solicit, gather, tabulate, and publish student feedback is required by state law; students are strongly urged to participate. For more information, visit <http://www.uta.edu/sfs>.

Final Review Week:

A period of five class days prior to the first day of final examinations in the long sessions shall be designated as Final Review Week. The purpose of this week is to allow students sufficient time to prepare for final examinations. During this week, there shall be no scheduled activities such as required field trips or performances; and no instructor shall assign any themes, research problems or exercises of similar scope that have a completion date during or following this week unless specified in the class syllabus. During Final Review Week, an instructor shall not give any examinations constituting 10% or more of the final grade, except makeup tests and laboratory examinations. In addition, no instructor shall give any portion of the final examination during Final Review Week. During this week, classes are held as scheduled. In addition, instructors are not required to limit content to topics that have been previously covered; they may introduce new concepts as appropriate.

Grade Grievance Policy:

Any appeal of a grade in this course must follow the procedures and deadlines for grade-related grievances as published in the current undergraduate/ graduate catalog. For undergraduate courses, see http://www.uta.edu/catalog/content/general/academic_regulations.aspx#10; for graduate courses, see <http://www.uta.edu/gradcatalog/2012/general/regulations/#grades>.

Emergency Exit Procedures: Should we experience an emergency event that requires us to vacate the building, students should exit the room and move toward the nearest exit, which is located to your right as you exit Professor Forbes' studio door. When exiting the building during an emergency, one should never take an elevator but should use the stairwells. Faculty members and instructional staff will assist students in selecting the safest route for evacuation and will make arrangements to assist handicapped individuals.
