Catalog Description of SPAN 3391: Independent study; consultation with instructor on a regular basis. Offered primarily in summer study abroad programs. May be repeated for credit. Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor.

Conference courses are offered when a professor invites an individual student to work on a specific project or course of study. They are not courses that are openly offered to the student body. The course is often not a part of a professor's regularly assigned teaching duties and as such is offered at their discretion. Details on the course of study are developed by student and professor in consultation with each other during Week 1 and are not intended for public distribution on the web. If you are a UT Arlington administrator and have standing to request more information about this course, please email me.
