Midterm and Final Exams: Midterm and final exams will be given only on the dates indicated on the syllabus. You will be tested on the first half of the course material for the midterm. The final will emphasize the last half of the course, but will contain some of the concepts presented in the first half, which are required for comprehension of topics presented in the last part of the course.

Chapter Tests: Chapter tests will be given only on the dates shown on the syllabus. You will be tested over material from the workbook, the lab manual, the text, and class activities. The policy of the department is no make-ups. If a student provides proper written documentation for an excused absence (only for serious extenuating circumstances) on the day of a chapter test, the score of the midterm or final closest to the missed test will also be used as the score for that test. Otherwise, missed tests are recorded as a "0". Students who provide an excuse on university letterhead will be allowed to make-up a missed test.

Quizzes: Quizzes may or may not be announced, at the discretion of the instructor. Missed quizzes cannot be made up under any circumstances. The 2 lowest quiz grades will be automatically dropped at the end of each course (1441, 1442).

Mi diario: For Chapters 1, 4, 7 and 10, students will complete a writing assignment called Mi diario which is due on the day of the corresponding chapter test. It must be typed and double-spaced. It will be returned with corrections indicated using the ECCO correction code. The final assessment (grade) is based on the student's re-write using the ECCO corrections. No credit is given for the original submission. Instructions for content and format of each Mi diario, as well as the ECCO Correction Code, can be found on this MODL blog: <http://lowerlevelspanish.wordpress.com>

Situaciones: There will be two in-class oral presentations, Situaciones, one for each course. Each one will be a response to real-life situations. Both situaciones topics will be provided by the instructor. Presentations must be memorized or the student will have points deducted. Each will be presented in class on the day indicated on the syllabus. The grade for the situaciones will be based on communication, pronunciation, content, fluency, and grammatical accuracy. Make-ups will not be allowed; however, if a student misses class the day of the situación, s/he may give a 2-3 minute presentation in front of the class on a topic and day assigned by the instructor for a maximum of 80% of the grade.

CENTRO: Online Lab Manual & Workbook: Students are responsible for completing the online material by the deadlines stated in the course calendar. The system will not accept late work for credit, although the student may do it for practice.

Attendance: Each student is allowed three "free" hours of absences per course. All absences count, including but not limited to absences due to illness and religious holidays. Excused absences are only accorded to athletes participating in a sports event for which they provide documentation on university letterhead in advance. If a student maintains his or her attendance record at or below this allowance of three hours per course, the lowest chapter test grade will be dropped. Three tardies = one hour of absence.

Miscellaneous:

- A grade of "C" or better in Spanish 1441 is a prerequisite for Spanish 1442.
- Spanish 1442 will be conducted at least 70% in Spanish at the beginning of the semester and 80-90 % by the end of the semester.
- Note that for every hour spent in class, a student should be prepared to invest at least two hours of outside preparation.
- Spanish 1442 is a pre-requisite for Spanish 2313 and 2314. If you are currently enrolled in any other lower-division Spanish course, you will be dropped from the higher level course.
- Students are required to make any course changes by the census date posted on the UTA web site. No transfers of courses or classes will be made after that date. Students should also check the UTA academic calendar to find the last day to drop.

Student Questions/Concerns: Should students have questions or concerns, they should first try to resolve these with their class instructor, then with Ms. Catherine Ortiz, Supervisor of Lower Level Spanish. Only after having spoken with the instructor and Ms. Ortiz should the Spanish Section Coordinator, Dr. Jinny Choi, be contacted in the event of unresolved issues.

Americans With Disabilities Act: UTA is on record as being committed to both the spirit and letter of federal equal opportunity legislation; reference Public Law 92-112 - The Rehabilitation Act of 1973 as amended. With the passage of federal legislation entitled Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), pursuant to section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, there is renewed focus on providing this population with the same opportunities enjoyed by all citizens. As a faculty member, I am required by law to provide "reasonable accommodations" to students with disabilities, so as not to discriminate on the basis of that disability. Student responsibility primarily rests with informing faculty of their need for accommodation and in providing authorized documentation through designated administrative channels. Information regarding specific diagnostic criteria and policies for obtaining academic accommodations can be found at www.uta.edu/disability. Also, you may visit the Office for Students with Disabilities in Room 102 of University Hall or call them at 817.272.3364. NOTE: Students who are granted extended time or special testing accommodation must present documentation to their instructor immediately, and will be expected to take all quizzes, tests, and exams in the ARC (Adaptive Resource Center) if their letter permits accommodation there. Students who do not wish to use their testing accommodation(s), such as extended time, etc., must sign a statement, before taking any assessments, which states that they do not wish to use this accommodation, and must then adhere to the same conditions for testing as all other students, as per the policies of the Department of Modern Languages. They may, of course, decide to use their testing accommodations at any time, as long as they sign another statement which reflects their current testing status.

Academic Integrity: It is the philosophy of UTA that academic dishonesty is a completely unacceptable mode of conduct and will not be tolerated in any form. All persons involved in academic dishonesty will be disciplined in accordance with University regulations and procedures. Discipline may include suspension or expulsion from the University.

"Scholastic dishonesty includes but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such act."

Collusion is defined as collaborating with another, without authorization, when preparing an assignment. (Regents' Rules and Regulations, Series 50101, Section 2.2).

The use of online translators, however limited, is included in the definition of scholastic dishonesty and is strictly forbidden. If a student has any doubts whatsoever as to what constitutes any form of scholastic dishonesty, s/he should consult the course instructor before submitting work which is subject to these rules and regulations.

E-culture Policy and Email use: All email correspondence to your instructor must originate from your UTA email account. Email originating from any other account will be ignored.

• When communicating with faculty by email, it is important that students keep the following in mind:

- 1) Be courteous: always use salutations and signatures.
- 2) For serious matters, use emails to facilitate a mutually agreeable time to meet. Email should not be used to avoid or replace personal interaction.
- 3) Never use email to vent or to respond immediately to an emotional situation.
- 4) Always remember that email creates a documentary record of one's communication with others.

• There are two main reasons for using email in this course:

- 1) To set up a face-to-face appointment with your instructor if you wish to ask questions regarding course materials, clarification or concerns about your progress in the course.
- 2) To inform the professor of absences.

• Do not use email for the following:

- 1) Do not email your instructor asking him/her to tell you what you missed in class.
- 2) Do not email your instructor asking him/her to email you class notes as an attachment.
- 3) Do not email your instructor asking him/her to email you course handouts.
- 4) Do not use email as a way to solve issues that should be resolved professionally during the instructor's scheduled office hours.

Cell phones, iPods, iPads, and laptops must be turned off and/or closed during class time.
