ART 1305 Two-Dimensional Design

Course Statement

This course will serve as a foundation course to introduce fundamental concepts, materials, processes, and vocabulary that are used in two-dimensional design. Assignments, lectures, demonstrations, and critiques will expose students to the topics of composition, figure and ground, color theory, scale, contrast, form and function, progression, and transformation. Students will work with a variety of materials to create projects such as photography, painting/ drawing, cut paper, and collage.

This course is not geared towards any particular genre. We will investigate the formal and communicative aspects of two-dimensional form and develop the visual language skills necessary for success in any artistic endeavor.

Overview

Our objective is to create portfolio quality Design, with a focus to develop the skills necessary for the professional and artistic studio. Course investigations will centrally focus on creative design solutions for a wide range of visual problems. We also want to expand our understanding of design philosophy, writing, and create aesthetically interesting and skillfully designed artistic expression. The level of effort required for successful completion of this course is HIGH.

Studio Projects are given by the studio instructor and executed by students in class or as homework. You are puzzle solvers. The projects are puzzles. You are artists. The projects are art.

Lectures will occur before or during studio projects and provide students with the important conceptual and historical information necessary for the comprehension and completion of each studio project. Taking notes during lectures are recommended.

Demonstrations are given by the instructor on the uses of tools, techniques, materials needed for successful completion of each studio project. Taking notes during demonstrations are recommended.

Critiques are held with the entire class, small groups or individually to discuss the process and final solution of each studio project. Taking notes during critiques are recommended.

The studio assignments, lectures, demonstrations and critiques will introduce students to a visual vocabulary that will provide the entire class with a common language which is necessary for meaningful and comprehensible class discussions. In addition, conceptual, formal, and mechanical skills learned in 2D Design can be applied to any advanced class within the fine, artisanry, and design arts.

Design is a plan for arranging elements in such a way as best to accomplish a particular purpose.

ART 1305 Two-Dimensional Design

required

Book: Design Language - Tim McCreight

UTA bookstore, Amazon, etc

This book is designed with elegance, filled with quotations from the greatest creative thinkers, and has excellent definitions and explanations of all basic art and design terms; i.e. texture, form, pattern, depth, shape, contrast, line, hierarchy, gestalt, critique, color, hue, harmony, balance, positive/negative, etc.

Preparation and Studio

Showing up on time with materials, disks, projects, sketchbook and whatever else you need to make effective use of the class time, and a good attitude are mandatory. This course will require a good deal of work OUTSIDE of class time, so plan your time efficiently and use it effectively. The work load is heavy, difficult, and interesting.

ART 1305 Two-Dimensional Design

Drop Policy: Students may drop or swap (adding and dropping a class concurrently) classes through self-service in MyMav from the beginning of the registration period through the late registration period. After the late registration period, students must see their academic advisor to drop a class or withdraw. Undeclared students must see an advisor in the University Advising Center. Drops can continue through a point two-thirds of the way through the term or session. It is the student's responsibility to officially withdraw if they do not plan to attend after registering. Students will not be automatically dropped for non-attendance. Repayment of certain types of financial aid administered through the University may be required as the result of dropping classes or withdrawing. For more information, contact the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships (<http://wwwb.uta.edu/ses/fao>).

Americans with Disabilities Act: The University of Texas at Arlington is on record as being committed to both the spirit and letter of all federal equal opportunity legislation, including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). All instructors at UT Arlington are required by law to provide "reasonable accommodations" to students with disabilities, so as not to discriminate on the basis of that disability. Any student requiring an accommodation for this course must provide the instructor with official documentation in the form of a letter certified by the staff in the Office for Students with Disabilities, University Hall 102. Only those students who have officially documented a need for an accommodation will have their request honored. Information regarding diagnostic criteria and policies for obtaining disability-based academic accommodations can be found at www.uta.edu/disability or by calling the Office for Students with Disabilities at (817) 272-3364.

Academic Integrity:

All students enrolled in this course are expected to adhere to the UT Arlington Honor Code:

I pledge, on my honor, to uphold UT Arlington's tradition of academic integrity, a tradition that values hard work and honest effort in the pursuit of academic excellence.

I promise that I will submit only work that I personally create or contribute to group collaborations, and I will appropriately reference any work from other sources. I will follow the highest standards of integrity and uphold the spirit of the Honor Code.

Instructors may employ the Honor Code as they see fit in their courses, including (but not limited to) having students acknowledge the honor code as part of an examination or requiring students to incorporate the honor code into any work submitted. Per UT System Regents' Rule 50101, §2.2, suspected violations of university's standards for academic integrity (including the Honor Code) will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct. Violators will be disciplined in accordance with University policy, which may result in the student's suspension or expulsion from the University.

Student Support Services: UT Arlington provides a variety of resources and programs designed to help students develop academic skills, deal with personal situations, and better understand concepts and information related to their courses. Resources include tutoring, major-based learning centers, developmental education, advising and mentoring, personal counseling, and federally funded programs. For individualized referrals, students may visit the reception desk at University College (Ransom Hall), call the Maverick Resource Hotline at 817-272-6107, send a message to resources@uta.edu, or view the information at www.uta.edu/resources

Electronic Communication: UT Arlington has adopted MavMail as its official means to communicate with students about important deadlines and events, as well as to transact university-related business regarding financial aid, tuition, grades, graduation, etc. All students are assigned a MavMail account and are responsible for checking the inbox regularly. There is no additional charge to students for using this account, which remains active even after graduation. Information about activating and using MavMail is available at <http://www.uta.edu/oit/cs/email/mavmail.php>.

Student Feedback Survey: At the end of each term, students enrolled in classes categorized as lecture, seminar, or laboratory shall be directed to complete a Student Feedback Survey (SFS). Instructions on how to access the SFS for this course will be sent directly to each student through MavMail approximately 10 days before the end of the term. Each student's feedback enters the SFS database anonymously and is aggregated with that of other students enrolled in the course. UT Arlington's effort to solicit, gather, tabulate, and publish student feedback is required by state law; students are strongly urged to participate. For more information, visit <http://www.uta.edu/sfs>.

Final Review Week: A period of five class days prior to the first day of final examinations in the long sessions shall be designated as Final Review Week. The purpose of this week is to allow students sufficient time to prepare for final examinations. During this week, there shall be no scheduled activities such as required field trips or performances; and no instructor shall assign any themes, research problems or exercises of similar scope that have a completion date during or following this week unless specified in the class syllabus. During Final Review Week, an instructor shall not give any examinations constituting 10% or more of the final grade, except makeup tests and laboratory examinations. In addition, no instructor shall give any portion of the final examination during Final Review Week. During this week, classes are held as scheduled. In addition, instructors are not required to limit content to topics that have been previously covered; they may introduce new concepts as appropriate.

Evaluation and Expectations

Attendance

We will follow a tight schedule and you should attend all classes.

3 absences - 1 letter grade drop from final grade

4 absences - 2 letter grades drop from final grade

5 absences or more - failure

I DO NOT differentiate between excused and non-excused absences.

Tardiness & Leaving Early

Tardiness and leaving early will count as half an absence.

However instructor reserves the right to count as full absence if frequent.

Expectations for Out-of-Class Study

Beyond the time required to attend each class meeting, students enrolled in this course should expect to spend at least an additional 9 hours per week of their own time in course-related activities, including reading required materials, completing assignments, preparing for exams, etc.

Participation

In order to communicate with other artists and non-artists regarding the large and complex issues surrounding the visual arts and design, you will need to develop conceptual and verbal skills. In the class room we can develop these skills by sharing our ideas with each other through discussion and critiques. Sharing your point of view, questions, and knowledge will help everyone in the class to develop more sophisticated ideas about the visual arts, and enhance your ability to present those ideas. Therefore, participation in class is an essential part of your grade. Don't be afraid to participate in class. Your opinion is an important part of the studio experience.

Craftsmanship

Attention to detail and presentation is essential to all studio projects given in this class. Each assignment should be well crafted and presented with pride. If the work is not well crafted you will be asked to do it over, or receive a poor grade.

Thoughtfulness

When form and content are married there is poetry. Careful attention to the relationship between content and form are an important part of your grade. We are not looking for pretty pictures. We are looking for thoughtful work.

Effort

Final grades are the total of all projects grades, attendance, and participation. Coming to class, and finishing the assignments does not guarantee a good grade - effort does.

Lap tops, cell phones and text messaging devices are not to be used during class time. DO NOT SEND OR READ TEXT MESSAGES DURING CLASS TIME. MP3 players are allowed during studio work sessions and surfing the internet via phone, iPad, PDA or laptop is not allowed.

Grading

Your sketches, class participation, attendance, writings, craftsmanship, project execution, development, thoughtfulness, timeliness, and effort will ALL factor into your individual project and final semester grades. Only a display of excellence in all the 'Evaluation and Expectations' areas will earn student an 'A'

Final grades will be an average of all of the above - not just grades on individual assignments.

A %100-90

B % 89-80

C % 79-70

D %69-60

Failure 59 or below

I do not round up.

Student Learning Outcomes

+The student will be able to identify fundamental two-dimensional design elements and principles.

+The student will demonstrate the ability to critically analyze and discuss two-dimensional design and art forms.

+The student will demonstrate the ability to conceive, develop and construct two-dimensional design solutions from prescribed conceptual and/or formal guidelines to aesthetically finished pieces.

+The student will be introduced to the basic visual language skills, process, vocabulary and begin to develop the visual sensitivity necessary for the creation of successful upper level and professional design solutions.

+The student will be introduced to the organization and presentation skills necessary for longer termed (semester long) explorations, i.e. themes.

Theme Based Semester

Each student will propose a theme to explore throughout the semester and all projects (except for Visual Vocabulary) must relate back to this theme.

All proposed themes must be approved by the professor by the end of the first assignment. Consider these perspectives as starting points for your themes:

- Formal
- Historical
- Social
- Conceptual
- Personal

Why this 'theme' format?

By allowing students to propose and explore an individual semester theme through the course assignments students become more empowered in regards to their education. They are put in a situation to recognize how the world they live in relates or can be related to through visual stimuli and aesthetic. Often exploration in these themes resurface in upper level course work.

Role of Faculty

Faculty role is to keep students on track and on topic and they can serve as an excellent resources for concept development. Faculty will aid students in seeing the larger picture (semester theme) while focusing on the smaller image (individual assignments). Students must find the connections between the concepts of their themes and the formal/ aesthetic qualities of their artwork. The more work and information you bring to the faculty, the more the faculty will be able to help you facilitate your concepts into a cohesive visual form.

Please write brief artist statement for each work that addresses your concept and attach to the back of your work (except V.V. project 1)
