Instructor Information:

Taryn G. Ozuna, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor
Department of Educational Leadership & Policy Studies
The University of Texas at Arlington
103E Trimble
tozuna@uta.edu

Office Hours: By appointment
817-272-2804 (O)

Course Information:

Course Title:  K-16 Organizational Theory Research
Course Number:  EDAD 6340.001
Semester:  Fall 2013
Course Location and Time:  TH 111, 5:30pm

Catalog Description:  In depth study of theories of organizing, the ways in which they are evidenced in educational organizations and the ways in which they influence leaders and learning.

Learning Outcomes:
1. To identify, define, and understand theories for analyzing organizations
2. To apply organizational theories to class discussions and course assignments
3. To explore the influence of personal values and professional experiences on perceptions of educational organizations
4. To understand how educational leaders can respond to organizational change

Required Textbook:  swrf

*Other readings as assigned.
Recommended Textbook:

Course Policies and Requirements

Attendance:
Class attendance is critical to learning, and students are expected to attend every class and actively participate in class discussion. Class will begin promptly at 5:30pm, and you are expected to be ready to begin class at that time. If circumstances prevent you from attending class or arriving on time, please send me an email or leave a voicemail message as a professional courtesy. If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to follow up with your classmates for class notes. In accordance with University guidelines, attendance will be taken every class session. Class participation is part of your grade, and absences, arriving late to class, or leaving early from class will affect your participation grade.

Drop Policy:
Adds and Drops: Adds and drops may be made during late registration either by SAM, by the Web or in person in the academic department offering the course. Drops may continue in person through the 12th week of class. Students are responsible for adhering to the following regulations concerning adds and drops. These rules apply to regular semesters and to equivalent time limits in summer sessions as noted on the summer session calendar. A student may not add a course after the end of late registration.
- No grade is given if a student drops a course before the Census Date of that semester.
- A student may drop a course with a grade of W during the first six weeks of class.
- From the seventh week of class through the 12th week of class, a student may drop a course with a grade of W if passing or a grade of F if failing.
- A student may not drop a course after the 12th week of class.
- The dean of the college or school in which the student is majoring may require a student to drop a course at any time upon the recommendation of the instructor and the concurrence of the department chair.
- Students wanting to drop all courses for which they are enrolled must withdraw from the University.

Incomplete Policy
Incomplete grades are highly discouraged. Incomplete grades will only be granted because of extenuating circumstances or major emergencies.

Communication:
UT Arlington has adopted MavMail as its official means to communicate with students about important deadlines and events, as well as to transact university-related business regarding financial aid, tuition, grades, graduation, etc. All students are assigned a MavMail account and are responsible for checking the inbox regularly. There is no additional charge to students for using this account, which remains active even after graduation. Information about activating and using MavMail is available at http://www.uta.edu/oit/cs/email/mavmail.php. I will not be responsible for information you miss that is sent by UTA email.

Final Review Week:
A period of five class days prior to the first day of final examinations in the long sessions shall be designated as Final Review Week. The purpose of this week is to allow students sufficient time to prepare for final examinations. During this week, there shall be no scheduled activities such as required field trips or performances; and no instructor shall assign any themes, research problems or exercises of similar scope that have a completion date during or following this week unless specified in the class syllabus. During Final Review Week, an instructor shall not give any examinations constituting 10% or more of the final grade, except makeup tests and laboratory examinations. In addition, no instructor shall give any portion of the final examination during Final Review Week. During this week, classes are held as scheduled. In addition, instructors are not required to limit content to topics that have been previously covered; they may introduce new concepts as appropriate.

This syllabus is current as of August 23, 2013. I reserve the right to adjust this syllabus to meet the educational needs of the students in this course. Please check Blackboard for the most current course syllabus.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA):
The University of Texas at Arlington is on record as being committed to both the spirit and letter of all federal equal opportunity legislation, including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). All instructors at UT Arlington are required by law to provide “reasonable accommodations” to students with disabilities, so as not to discriminate on the basis of that disability. Any student requiring an accommodation for this course must provide the instructor with official documentation in the form of a letter certified by the staff in the Office for Students with Disabilities, University Hall 102. Only those students who have officially documented a need for an accommodation will have their request honored. Information regarding diagnostic criteria and policies for obtaining disability-based academic accommodations can be found at www.uta.edu/disability or by calling the Office for Students with Disabilities at (817) 272-3364.

Professional Dispositions:
Each candidate in the College of Education and Health Professions of UT Arlington will be evaluated on Professional Dispositions by faculty and staff. These dispositions have been identified as essential for a highly-qualified professional. Instructors and program directors will work with candidates rated as “unacceptable” in one or more stated criteria. The candidate will have an opportunity to develop a plan to remediate any digressions.

Academic Integrity:
Students enrolled in this course are expected to adhere to the UT Arlington Honor Code:

> I pledge, on my honor, to uphold UT Arlington’s tradition of academic integrity, a tradition that values hard work and honest effort in the pursuit of academic excellence.

> I promise that I will submit only work that I personally create or contribute to group collaborations, and I will appropriately reference any work from other sources. I will follow the highest standards of integrity and uphold the spirit of the Honor Code.

UT Arlington faculty members may employ the Honor Code as they see fit in their courses, including (but not limited to) having students acknowledge the honor code as part of an examination or requiring students to incorporate the honor code into any work submitted. Per UT System Regents’ Rule 50101, §2.2, suspected violations of university’s standards for academic integrity (including the Honor Code) will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct. Violators will be disciplined in accordance with University policy, which may result in the student’s suspension or expulsion from the University.

Student Support Services
UT Arlington provides a variety of resources and programs designed to help students develop academic skills, deal with personal situations, and better understand concepts and information related to their courses. Resources include tutoring, major-based learning centers, developmental education, advising and mentoring, personal counseling, and federally funded programs. For individualized referrals, students
This syllabus is current as of August 23, 2013. I reserve the right to adjust this syllabus to meet the educational needs of the students in this course. Please check Blackboard for the most current course syllabus.
2. Personal Theory Paper – 10 points (September 5th, via email by midnight)

Personal values influence perceptions of organizational behavior. For this assignment, reflect on your personal worldview, personality, and experiences with educational organizations and describe the frame most in line with your personal and professional background. Your rationale must include a compare and contrast of your preliminary understanding of the other frames. This assignment should be between five to seven pages, excluding references.

3. Group Presentation – 30 points (TBD)

Each group (seven groups of two and one group of three) will select a chapter from Hanson’s or Birnbaum’s book. You will be graded on: (a) your preparedness, (b) subject comprehension, (c) content knowledge, (d) the implementation of an exercise or activity that allows students to reflect and apply new knowledge, (e) the provision of a handout that summarizes the content of the presentation and includes complete APA citations for references used, and (f) partner evaluation. Each presentation will last between 45 minutes to an 1 hour and 15 minutes. All group members are expected to share equally in the work and the presentation.

Presentation and PowerPoint - Groups are encouraged to develop creative, engaging, and interactive presentations that do not solely rely on PowerPoint. When PowerPoint is necessary, slides should not be overly filled or void of text. Presenters should use PowerPoint slides with appropriate text fonts (14pt-22pt) to introduce talking points and avoid reading the text verbatim. In addition, groups should avoid slides that are simply black text with white backgrounds. Other forms of media (e.g., YouTube, newspaper articles, interviews, or iTunes) are highly encouraged to present and discuss the selected chapter.

Group Assignments - Groups must utilize information beyond that presented in the course’s required readings, including, other refereed sources. Group presentation dates include:

- September 12th (Week 4) – Schools and Institutions as Bureaucratic Organizations
  - Hanson - Chapter 2
  - Birnbaum – Chapter 5
- September 26th (Week 6) – Motivation and Management
  - Hanson - Chapter 8
  - Birnbaum - Chapter 4
- October 10th (Week 8) – Political Systems
  - Hanson - Chapter 3
  - Birnbaum - Chapter 6
- October 24th (Week 12) – Uncertainty in Educational Organizations
  - Hanson – Chapter 6
  - Birnbaum – Chapter 7

Evaluations - Every student will submit a peer evaluation of the presentations by sending me an e-mail with subject line Group#ClassEval_YourLastName.doc or .docx (e.g., Group1ClassEval_Ozuna.doc). You will assess the presentation by the five criteria listed above and send your suggested grade for the group and a justification for that grade (use a numerical grade and a letter grade) within 72 hours of the presentation (by Sunday midnight). Late emails will affect your participation grade. If you are presenting, then you will send me the Partner Evaluations form on Blackboard.

Remember to provide constructive feedback to foster learning and development of your peers. Once I have received the group peer evaluations, I will compile the feedback, include my comments, and forward the evaluations to the presenters. I will weigh your comments with my own in assigning grades. Grades will also be assigned once all of the presentations are complete.

This syllabus is current as of August 23, 2013. I reserve the right to adjust this syllabus to meet the educational needs of the students in this course. Please check Blackboard for the most current course syllabus.
4. Case Study – 50 points

   Topic Proposal – 5 points (September 26th, via email by midnight)

   The proposal is a very brief (approximately 2 pages, excluding references) description of your paper topic. Furthermore, it must include: a brief background of the organizational problem you want to study, the rationale for examining this issue, as well as your relationship to this organization, if any. After your proposal is approved, you may proceed with your case study.

   Article Critiques – 10 points (October 17th, via email by midnight)

   Students will submit at least three article critiques to demonstrate outside research. The sources must include refereed journal articles and/or published dissertations. For the purpose of the final case study, students may include course readings, policy briefs, as well as government documents and reports. Avoid non-scholarly resources, editorials, and commentary. For more information on how to write an article critique, please review the guidelines posted under Course Materials on Blackboard.

   Final Paper – 35 points (December 9th, via email by midnight)

   Each student will submit a case study on an organization. The case study should present a background of the organization, the organizational problem under investigation, and an analysis using a theoretical framework or at least two frames from Bolman & Deal. The case study must conclude with any recommendations for organizational or leadership changes as well as a personal reflection on what you learned from this project. You are encouraged to interview individuals associated with this organization to further develop your paper. Include the contact information for the interviewees in an appendix. The final paper must be between 15-20 pages in length, excluding the cover page and references.

   Grading Scale

   90-100 A
   80-89 B
   70-79 C
   60-69 D
   Anything lower earns an F