SPAN 5314 – Topics in Spanish-American Literature and Culture to Modernism: Topics may include: Colonial Spanish-American literature and culture, pre-modern Spanish American literature and culture, Spanish-American literature and culture of the Enlightenment, or any particular movement, genre, work or author prior to Modernism. May be repeated for credit when content changes.

Topic for Spring 2014 “Civilization and Barbarism.” Under this broad theme, we will conduct a broad survey of key works from the M.A. Reading List in Spanish, spanning the period of the sixteenth century to the twentieth century. (Our work on the twentieth century will be limited to two weeks only; the bulk of the course is pre-1900.) The theme of Civilization and Barbarism designates an ideological formulation made famous by Domingo Faustino Sarmiento in 1845 with the publication of a book called Facundo. This formulation became a dominant framework for elite writers to promote progress and denigrate actors and cultural forms that they considered to be ‘barbaric.’ It’s a juxtaposition that has been used to contrast Europe/America; White/Indian; Upper class/Lower class and others. We will adopt the framework of Civilization and Barbarism not because we agree with its ideology (it’s elitist, and more often than not racist) but because it is a historically significant ideology that will be helpful in organizing our thinking about Latin American literature and culture. At the heart of the formulation by Sarmiento is a distinction between self and other, an opposition between competing ethnicities and identity formations. Therefore, we can use the frame to study any literature in which two forms of cultural identity coexist or clash. All of our readings, in some form or fashion, express this encounter.

Student Learning Outcomes:
1. Students master a general outline of Latin American literary history from the sixteenth century to 1900 in order to classify works of literature by period and properly contextualize their analysis of individual works.
2. Students exercise critical thinking and active reading skills in order to identify key passages, symbols, themes and rhetorical strategies used by writers and/or film makers.
3. Students exercise critical thinking and writing skills by taking their ideas about the assigned reading and effectively and persuasively organizing them into a written argument or set of arguments that is analytical in nature.
4. Students utilize advanced, library based research skills in order to research a problem and make informed arguments.
5. Students utilize project management skills to plan, organize and pace a group project designed to educate their classmates on a topic or text.
Required Textbooks and Other Course Materials: The books Early Spanish American Narrative by Lindstrom, Naufragios by Cabeza de Vaca, Don Catrín de la Fachenda by Fernández de Lizardi, and El zarco by Altamiriano available at the bookstore. Students are responsible for securing a copy of Los ríos profundos by Arguedas in the library or online at a store such as Amazon.

Descriptions of major assignments and examinations:
• Exams. Through exams, I will test your retention of key concepts, and your ability to apply concepts to problems or more theoretical questions. There are basic facts to be learned and retained through memorization, but this is not the only interpretation of learning, or even the best interpretation of what it means to learn. For this reason, my exams will require you to apply key concepts that have been repeatedly explained, explored and applied throughout the semester, to broader questions. My exams will rarely have multiple choice or matching questions. There will be short essay questions and/or longer essay questions. More specific details will be provided on our Blackboard course management system. Dates of Examinations: Midterm March 3 5PM; Final May 12, 5 PM.

• Response Paper. A response paper, “Comentario” in Spanish, is a critical response to an assigned reading or video. The most important facet of a response paper is its analytical nature. Please see my course handbook, “Manual de Trabajo”, posted on our Blackboard course management system, for a detailed discussion of a response paper and a sample response paper. Deadlines: January 27, February 17, April 7.

• Group Presentation. In professional life, we are expected to work together effectively and prepare projects, reports and solutions to problems. My expectation that students work in groups reflects my belief that collaborative learning and problem solving are central to the future success of my students. In this class, students will be expected to do original research, thoroughly comprehend the material and find effective ways of presenting this research to the rest of the class with visual support and thoughtful, purposeful organization. The oral presentation will be no longer than 15 minutes. Multimedia presentations will be graded on clarity, organization, substance, spelling, creativity and effectiveness. Oral presentation date: April 28.

Attendance: Students are only allowed two absences or a total of six hours of absence, which is equivalent to two weeks of class. These excused absences are designed to accommodate medical emergencies, the observance of religious holidays, University approved sporting absences and family emergencies. No documentation or explanation is required for up to two absences. Upon the third absence, the student will be called upon to meet with the professor about whether or not they should remain in the class. Any student with three absences or more will receive a 10 point deduction from their final grade.

Other Requirements: You are required to bring your book and assigned readings to class. A classroom is a professional space and you want to make a good impression, regardless of your preparation or plans for participation

Grading: The grade distribution is as follows: Midterm Exam (25%); Final Exam (25%); Presentation (15%); Response Papers [3] (30%); Participation (5%).

DESCRIPTOR DE LA NOTA

1. Participación (5%). Esta clase está diseñada a modo de seminario, por lo tanto se espera que cada estudiante venga y participe activamente en la discusión. De modo que el estudiante deberá haber leído y analizado todo el material asignado, trayendo a clase preguntas, comentarios y propuestas con respecto a éste. Debido a la importancia de la participación, se espera la asistencia constante del estudiante a clase. Sin embargo, reconociendo cualquier eventualidad que pueda ocurrir a lo largo del semestre, se permitirá un máximo de dos ausencias. Cualquier ausencia por encima del límite aceptado tendrá como consecuencia la rebaja inapelable en una letra de la nota final (10%). Se espera que cada estudiante llegue a clase a tiempo y listo/a para empezar la discusión. Debido que las llegadas tardes a clase interrumpen la clase, cada tres llegadas tardes contarán como una ausencia.

La nota por participación incluye la participación oral diaria, la asistencia y en algunos casos, la preparación de las preguntas de discusión. OJO!: La asistencia perfecta no se iguala a una buena nota. Se espera un alto grado de participación de los / las estudiantes, incluyendo de los tímidos / las tímidas. Es necesario leer y preparar la tarea antes de la clase para poder alcanzar un alto nivel de participación oral. Todos los días se dará una nota por la participación oral que se basará en lo siguiente:

A: 4  Demuestra preparación total, maestría de la materia. Conversa sin titubear, con un entendimiento pleno de la materia.
B: 3  Se presenta voluntariamente muchas veces. Demuestra preparación y y contribuciones bastante bien pensadas.
C: 3  Se presenta voluntariamente de vez en cuanto. No demuestra preparación cuidadosa.
D: 1  No habla o habla sólo cuando se le pide
F: 0  Ausente

2. Comentarios [3] (30%). A lo largo del semestre los estudiantes escribirán 2 ensayos breves que incorporarán un acercamiento crítico al texto. Se tienen que entregar en clase los días asignados en el sílabo y a veces la profesora elegirá a unos estudiantes al azar para compartir sus reacciones. Si no llega a tiempo, el estudiante recibirá un cero. El propósito de estos ejercicios es tanto practicar destrezas de la redacción crítica en español como empezar a sintetizar ideas sobre los textos primarios, las lecturas secundarias y las discusiones en clase. Cuando sea apropiado la profesora responderá a las reflexiones del estudiante. * La gramática, la organización y el contenido SIEMPRE se tomarán en cuenta al asignar la nota.
3. Exámenes (2) (50%). El estudiante deberá contestar dos exámenes cuyo objetivo será que el alumno demuestre su manejo y conocimiento del material discutido, términos críticos, conceptos y contexto histórico relacionado con el material de la sección a la que corresponda el examen. Los detalles sobre estos dos exámenes se entregarán al estudiante por lo menos una semana antes de la fecha del examen. El propósito de estos exámenes es preparar al estudiante para el examen de maestría. OJO: Algunos estudiantes tendrán la oportunidad de escribir un trabajo de investigación en vez del examen final. Esta opción se explicará más en detalle en la segunda mitad del semestre.

4. Informe oral (15%). Cada estudiante deberá hacer una presentación oral de aproximadamente 15 minutos. Las presentaciones se programarán en varios momentos a lo largo del semestre. El propósito es hacer una lectura crítica del artículo asignado para ese día. Esta crítica incluirá un resumen de los argumentos más importantes del artículo y luego un comentario crítico sobre dichos argumentos. La calificación se basará en los siguientes elementos: el uso correcto del idioma (gramática, vocabulario), la creatividad, la claridad de presentar las ideas y la habilidad de hacer preguntas bien formuladas a la clase (para comenzar la discusión del artículo asignado).

NOTA IMPORTANTE:

Fechas de entrega: Es la responsabilidad del estudiante hacer los arreglos pertinentes para entregar sus trabajos a tiempo. Preste atención a las fechas en el itinerario antes de hacer cualquier arreglo de viaje. No se harán excepciones ni se cambiará la fecha de entrega de ningún trabajo ni exámenes a estudiantes en particular. Cada trabajo se debe entregar al principio de la clase el día asignado en el itinerario. La profesora no acepta trabajos tardes y el estudiante recibirá un ZERO si entrega un trabajo después de la clase. Debido a las complicaciones con el correo electrónico, la profesora no acepta trabajos entregados por correo electrónico sin arreglos de antemano.
