EXPECTATIONS FOR OUT-OF-CLASS STUDY

Beyond the time required to attend each class meeting, students enrolled in this course should expect to spend at least an additional 20-40 hours per week of their own time in course-related activities, including reading required materials, completing assignments, preparing for critiques, etc.

COURSE ATTENDANCE

Students who will be absent from class for the observance of a religious holiday or illness will be required to makeup assignments missed. Because of all the material covered in class each session the lecture cannot be repeated for students who miss or show up tardy for class. It is imperative that students arrive on time and remain in class the entire time. As a result, I have elected to take attendance in my classroom and it will affect your overall grade in the course. Roll is taken during the first 15 minutes of class. Anyone who arrives after the roll is taken but before 15 minutes has passed will be considered tardy. Anyone who arrives more than 15 minutes late will be considered absent. The roll is a daily record of your attendance and has a major impact on your grade. Consistent tardies are disruptive/disrespectful to your classmates. 3 tardies will equal one absence. After 3 absences (unexcused) the final class grade will drop one letter grade and will continue to drop for each successive absence.
