Descriptions of major assignments and examinations with due dates:

Central Standard Time Zone:

The University of Texas at Arlington is located in the central standard time zone. As such all due dates and times are based on the central standard time zone. All students regardless of their physical location are required to adhere to the central standard time zone due dates and times. It is the student's responsibility to know, in which time zone they are located, how that differs from the CST zone, and to ensure they follow the due dates and times accordingly. Late assignments or tests will not be accepted if the student encounters difficulties due to time zone discrepancies.

Course Format and Design

AGACNPs may function in an autonomous manner to provide high quality, evidenced based care to the patients which they serve. The AGACNP is frequently faced with complex, acute and chronic issues which require a higher level of information synthesis, application, and clinical reasoning to stabilize, restore or maintain health. This course is designed to help facilitate your learning experience with proactive learning strategies to develop these essential skills.

A hybrid course format is used to deliver content. Extensive weekly lectures, topic outlines and objectives are provided. Class time will take on variable formats including small group work, presenting to the class, and completing in-class case studies. To get the best experience from your small group work and/or the in-class case studies, all readings and lectures should be completed prior to coming to a scheduled class. This includes content that is scheduled on the week of a scheduled class meeting.

Tests

There is a total of five tests in this course. Each test will contain approximately 50 multiple choice questions; however, the total number may vary. You will have approximately 2.4 minutes per question. Thus, the time allotted for the completion of a test which contains 50 questions is 2 hours. Test questions are developed from the required readings and the lectures.

Test 5 is not comprehensive; however, the concepts in this course build on one another and will be integrated into each test. You will need to understand concepts from each week as they may appear in a later test within the course. Because this course builds on previously acquired knowledge, you are responsible for all previously learned content from Advanced Pathophysiology, Advanced Pharmacology, Advanced Assessment, Role, and Adult Gerontology Management Across the Continuum of Care. Tests items may be inclusive of this information as well. You are expected to do your own work. The use of reference materials or outside help of any kind is prohibited and doing so will result in an automatic zero on the respective test and the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct.

Each test will open beginning Friday at 8:00am (CST) through Sunday at 8:00am (CST) on the respective week they are scheduled. Please note that test 5 will have an alternative start and stop time frame. The test must be taken during the allotted time; otherwise, a zero will be assigned. Make up tests will only be allowed for extenuating circumstances as evaluated by the lead faculty of the course and may require appropriate documentation. Make up tests may consist of multiple choice questions, short answer or fill in the blank questions. Any missed exams may be assigned a zero.

Discussing the test is strictly prohibited. Any person caught discussing any test content will be given a zero on the respective test and referred to the Office of Student Conduct. To ensure the integrity of the test and to prepare you for certification, test questions come from a pool of questions, and may include pictures (e.g. CXR, ECGs, etc.) and are randomly assigned to the students.

Test questions are developed from the required readings and the lectures. The questions will cover the topics listed for each major content area and are aligned with the content objectives. Focus your reading and studying on the listed topics, guided by the objectives. In accordance with the graduate nursing program's policy individual test review will not be allowed. General feedback will be given to the class as a whole.

All tests will be video monitored and require the use of Respondus Lockdown browser and a webcam.

TEST TAKING REQUIREMENTS ARE AVAILABLE IN BLACKBOARD, please read and follow these requirements when taking a test.

Class Participation Grade: Class will meet three times on campus and attendance is required. This is an all or nothing grade. To receive full credit for each class one must be present for the entire class. Any student coming to class more than 5 minutes late or leaves before class is over will receive a zero for the respective class date. Attendance will be taken at the beginning and end of each class. If a class is missed a grade of zero will be assigned. Attending class is extremely important for your learning process and grade. Make up assignments will not be allowed for missed classes. The content covered during each class will pertain to the topics covered in the weekly lectures and readings assigned in the weeks preceding the class and is inclusive of the content presented during the week of a scheduled class meeting. Therefore, it is essential that you complete the lectures and readings prior to coming to class.

Quality in Acute Care Paper: The quality in acute care paper is a short paper which will help students to understand the importance of quality in the acute care setting and serves as an introduction to the quality process and metrics. A rubric with specific instructions is available in blackboard and should be followed to complete the assignment. There is not a minimum page limit, however there is a maximum limit of 8 pages, not including the title or reference pages. If you have difficulties with writing, please work with the writing center to improve your skills and paper prior to submitting it for grading. The paper is due on 7/13/2017 before 0800 AM (CST). The assignment should be submitted through blackboard. Papers which are submitted through email will not be accepted for a grade or given feedback and will receive a zero. A late submission will not be accepted and will receive a grade of zero. Safe assign will be used to check for plagiarism.

Attendance Policy: Class will meet three times on campus this semester. Each class meeting time is required and a grade will be assigned for class participation. Attendance will be taken. The class participation grade is an all or nothing grade. There are no make-up assignments for any missed class. In the event a class is missed a grade of zero will be assigned for the respective missed class.

Grading Policy: Students are expected to keep track of their performance throughout the semester and seek guidance from available sources (including the instructor) if their performance drops below satisfactory levels.

The success faculty in the MSN Program:

~~Dr. Barnes will not be available this summer as writing coach. Dr. Donelle Barnes is available as a writing coach to assist students in the MSN Core courses; theory, research, and evidence based practice. Since these courses are writing intensive, Dr. Barnes can help students improve the clarity and organization of their written papers. She can be reached via email: donelle@uta.edu.~~

Dr. Mary Schira is available as a success faculty to assist with diverse resources that may include study skills, testing challenges/approaches, managing multiple responsibilities, and addressing personal issues impacting academic performance. Course content challenges may also be addressed, with referral to additional resources as indicated. Dr. Schira can be reached via email: schira@uta.edu.

Electronic Communication: UT Arlington has adopted MavMail as its official means to communicate with students about important deadlines and events, as well as to transact university-related business regarding financial aid, tuition, grades, graduation, etc. All students are assigned a MavMail account and are responsible for checking the inbox regularly. There is no additional charge to students for using this account, which remains active even after graduation. Information about activating and using MavMail is available at <http://www.uta.edu/oit/cs/email/mavmail.php>.

If you are unable to resolve your issue contact the Helpdesk at helpdesk@uta.edu.

Student Feedback Survey: At the end of each term, students enrolled in face-to-face and online classes categorized as "lecture," "seminar," or "laboratory" are directed to complete an online Student Feedback Survey (SFS). Instructions on how to access the SFS for this course will be sent directly to each student through MavMail approximately 10 days before the end of the term. Each student's feedback via the SFS database is aggregated with that of other students enrolled in the course. Students' anonymity will be protected to the extent that the law allows. UT

Arlington’s effort to solicit, gather, tabulate, and publish student feedback is required by state law and aggregate results are posted online. Data from SFS is also used for faculty and program evaluations. For more information, visit <http://www.uta.edu/sfs>.

Final Review Week: For semester-long courses, a period of five class days prior to the first day of final examinations in the long sessions shall be designated as Final Review Week. The purpose of this week is to allow students sufficient time to prepare for final examinations. During this week, there shall be no scheduled activities such as required field trips or performances; and no instructor shall assign any themes, research problems or exercises of similar scope that have a completion date during or following this week unless specified in the class syllabus. During Final Review Week, an instructor shall not give any examinations constituting 10% or more of the final grade, except makeup tests and laboratory examinations. In addition, no instructor shall give any portion of the final examination during Final Review Week. During this week, classes are held as scheduled. In addition, instructors are not required to limit content to topics that have been previously covered; they may introduce new concepts as appropriate.

Emergency Exit Procedures: Should we experience an emergency event that requires us to vacate the building, students should exit the room and move toward the nearest exit. When exiting the building during an emergency, one should never take an elevator but should use the stairwells. Faculty members and instructional staff will assist students in selecting the safest route for evacuation and will make arrangements to assist individuals with disabilities.

For information regarding Scholarship Funds, please contact the Dean’s office.

Online Conduct: The discussion board should be viewed as a public and professional forum for course-related discussions. Students are free to discuss academic matters and consult one another regarding academic resources. The tone of postings should be professional in nature.

It is not appropriate to post statements of a personal or political nature, or statements criticizing classmates or faculty. Inappropriate statements/language will be deleted by the course faculty and may result in denied access to the Discussion boards. Refer to UTA CONHI Graduate Student Handbook for more information.

For this course Blackboard communication tools, discussion boards, and UTA MAV email will be used extensively and should be checked often.
